Bromley Revisited Exhibition Gallery - 1st Floor of Bromley Central Library

Situated on the first floor of the Central Library, the Bromley Revisited Gallery is divided into three themes; Creative in Bromley, Made in Bromley and Life in Bromley. The exhibition reveals Bromley’s rich history from ancient times to the present day. Highlights include David Bowie’s jacket; objects from the Crystal Palace and finds from Roman Bromley.

The John Lubbock Exhibition Gallery - 2nd Floor of Bromley Central Library

The John Lubbock Gallery on the second floor explores Sir John Lubbock’s contribution to our modern understanding of pre-history; the tradition of Victorian collecting and anthropology and how this practice led to the development of the Victorian world view and the development of modern science. The exhibition includes items on loan from the Lubbock family that help to illustrate Lubbock’s personal impact both on the history of Bromley and on the nation.

Bromley’s Great War; 1914-1918, Special exhibition space
- 1st Floor of Bromley Central Library.
November 2016 to April 2017

Bromley’s Great War; 1914-1918 tells the story of how the men, women and children of Bromley’s towns and villages contributed to the war effort at home and on the battle front.